KINGSTON, (Jamaica), Nov. 22.

Tueſday laſt the General Aſſembly of this iſland met, according to the laſt prorogation, when his honour the Lieutenant-Governor was pleaſed to open the Seſſion with the following SPEECH, viz.

Gentlemen of the Council;
Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the Aſſembly,

I WOULD not have required your attendance here this day, after ſo ſhort a receſs, if the public ſervice did not render your meeting altogether neceſſary; and am fully perſuaded, I need not recommend to you, to conduct all ſuch buſineſs as may come before you, with your uſual temper and moderation.

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Aſſembly,

I have no doubt you will chearfully grant the ordinary ſupplies I am now to aſk, for the ſervice of the current year, and that you will make a proper proviſion for his Majeſty's troops, nor can I ſuppoſe you will think it prudent, to ſuffer the fortifications to be totally neglected, after ſuch immenſe ſums have already been expended upon them.

Gentlemen of the Council,
Mr Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Aſſembly,

As I have a moſt perfect confidence, that all your conſultations and endeavours will be directed to that great object, the good of your country, permit me to aſſure you, I ſhall be exceeding happy to co-operate with you in ſo glorious a work, having very truly at heart, all ſuch meaſures as may promote the honour and dignity of his Majeſty's government, and eſtabliſh the proſperity and happineſs of this community.

KINGSTON, December 6.

The aſſembly and council have returned the following anſwers to his honour's ſpeech, at the opening of the ſeſſion, at St. Jago de la Vega.

JAMAICA, ſs.

To his honour Roger Hope Elleſton, Eſq; Lieutenant-governor, and commander in chief of his Majeſty's iſland of Jamaica, and the territories thereon depending in America, chancellor and vice-admiral of the ſame.

The humble ADDRESS of the ASSEMBLY.

May it pleaſe your honour,

WE his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal ſubjects the Aſſembly of this his Majeſty's iſland of Jamaica, return your honour our thanks for your ſpeech at the opening of the preſent ſeſſions.

Perſuaded as we are that nothing but the neceſſity of the public ſervice induced your honour again to convene us after ſo ſhort a receſs, we ſhall endeavour to diſpatch ſuch buſineſs as may come before us with the temper and moderation which become the repreſentatives of a people who are intitled to the rights and privileges of free-born Britons.

The ſupplies for the current year we ſhall raiſe with chearfulneſs, and make a proper proviſion for his Majeſty's troops; we ſhall take into conſideration the ſtate of the fortifications and endeavour (if the diſtreſſed ſtate of the colony will allow of the expence) to prevent a total diſſipation thereof, an expence that is more feeſibly felt, as the people of the iſland have been already taxed with immenſe ſums on that account.

We flatter ourſelves that the confidence your honour is pleaſed to declare you have in our conduct is not ill founded, the good of our country is the only object we have in view, and your honour's conduct muſt convince us that your felicity will be greatly increaſed by co-operating with us in every meaſure that may tend to ſupport the honour and dignity of his Majeſty's government, and eſtabliſh the proſperity and happineſs of this community, and permit us in return, for ſuch kind aſſurances to declare we ſhall readily contribute our endeavours to ſupport and render eaſy your honour's adminiſtration.

Paſſed the Aſſembly the 20th day of Nov. 1766.

W. NEDHAM, Speaker.

To which his honour was pleaſed to make the following ANSWER.

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Aſſembly

I THANK you for your addreſs, and aſſure you my adminiſtration cannot fail of being eaſy and honourable to myſelf, while I may hope I am the happy inſtrument of conveying good to you, and to thoſe whom you repreſent.

JAMAICA, ſs.

To the honourable Roger Hope Elleſton, lieutenant-governor, and commander in chief of his Majeſty's iſland of Jamaica, and territories thereon depending in America, chancellor and vice-admiral of the ſame.

The humble ADDRESS of the COUNCIL.

May it pleaſe your honour,

WE, his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal ſubjects, the Council of Jamaica, return your honour our hearty thanks for your ſpeech at the opening of the ſeſſion. Senſible of the neceſſity your honour was under of aſſembling the legiſlative bodies of this iſland; we chearfully attend the public ſervice, and ſhall in all our proceedings, endeavour to confirm your honour's favourable opinion of us, and by our temper and moderation manifeſt, that we have only one object in view;——the public good.

We ſhall readily concur in every proper meaſure that may be offered for making a proviſion for his Majeſty's troops, and for putting the fortifications on a reſpectable footing, which ſeems to us, to be the more neceſſary at this juncture, as by the Free Port Bill, paſſed by the Parliament of Great-Britain, our ports are thrown open to the view of thoſe from whom alone we can apprehend danger, in the event of a war, and who, by their uncontrolable intercourſe with this country, will eaſily obtain the knowledge of their defenceleſs condition.

We are extremely happy in the confidence we have of your honour's co-operating with the other branches of the legiſlature, in promoting every meaſure that may tend to the honour and dignity of his Majeſty's government, and the proſperity and happineſs of this community, and beg leave to aſſure your honour, that nothing ſhall be wanting on our part, to facilitate ſo laudable a work; and that we ſhall by a ſedulous application to the buſineſs that may come before us, endeavour to bring this ſeſſion to as ſpeedy a cloſe as poſſible, that your honour may have that receſs, which, with great concern we obſerve, to be ſo very neceſſary for the re eſtabliſhment of your health.

Paſſed the Council, the 21ſt day of Nov. 1766.

T. HAY, Clerk of the Council.

To which his Honour was pleaſed to return the following anſwer:

Gentlemen of the Council,

I Thank you for this addreſs, and for the aſſurances you give me of your endeavours to bring this ſeſſion to a ſpeedy and happy concluſion: and as your paſt conduct has very ſufficiently evinced your inclination to promote the honour of his Majeſty's government, and the proſperity of this community, ſo I am fully perſuaded you will in the enſuing ſeſſions have the ſame laudable object conſtantly in view.

An attempt having been made to infringe the liberties of the inhabitants of this town, two reſolved, ſaid to be very great likeneſſes, were, on Saturday night laſt, put into a cart (the one habited into a black gown, with a band on, and the other, who appeared to be an elderly perſon, had on a fine coat, a large wig, and white gloves) and drawn backwards, thro' all the principal ſtreets; and, by way of condolance, and to have the uſual number, the two former were furniſhed with a companion, being a very compleat figure of the devil, who, tho' more innocent than his brethren ſufferers, was placed in the ſame cart with them. After being conveyed thro' the town, they were brought to the court houſe, from whence the proceſſion began with a ſlow pace; the cart was illuminated by a great number of candles and flambeaux, attended by mourners, two muffled drums, and a bell, to the parade, where a gallows and gallery were previouſly erected. Being arrived at the place of execution, the man of the gown was tucked up, and the following label appeared on his breaſt:

Kill burn, or hang, which ever you think right,
No pity aſk—I ſee eternal night—
My laſt efforts, my tarit rancour tell:
My latter crimes by far my firſt exceel,
And living on would be too bad for hell.

The old man was then fixed into the pillory, and discovered the following lines:

My dear friend T——, I see thee.——Well,
I soon shall follow; we'll meet in hell.

His devilship was set astride the gallows, with a fork in his hand, and thus exclaim'd:

What! C—— T——, and my old friend P——,
You're welcome to me; we're at hell in a trice.

It was now resolved, nemine contradicente, to finish the scene; and accordingly fire was set to several barrels of pitch and tar, which consumed the bodies, tho' they continued emitting large quantities of sulphureous matter, to ashes, and then their detested remains were scattered in the air, to the no small diversion of an incredible number of spectators, perhaps the greatest ever assembled in this town.

TO BE SOLD,

On TUESDAY the 7th of April next upon the ſpot, where PETER HALL, Cabinet-maker, now lives, in Queen ſtreet, at Public Outcry, to the higheſt bidder, upon terms which ſhall be declared previous to the beginning of the ſaid intended ſale:

FOUR very valuable NEGROES, two of them good workmen at the cabinet maker's buſineſs; one a good ſawyer, and handles his tools ſo well in the coarſer branches of that trade, as to be capable of making a tolerable country-carpenter, and is very diligent and lively: The other a boy, uſed to houſe-work, and is alert and active. They are all young and healthy, and as orderly as Negroes generally are.

ALSO, ſundry finiſhed and unfiniſhed pieces of cabinet work, cabinet makers tools, and implements; planks of mahogany, and other kinds of wood.——Divers houſhold furniture, and two large wooden ſhops as they now ſtand. Any perſon inclined to become a purchaſer, may inſpect and view the articles; but nothing will be ſold before the ſaid day.

And, as I am going to London early in May next, I humbly intreat ſuch perſons as are indebted to me, to pay off (in the mean time) their reſpective accompts, in order to ſave trouble to themſelves, and to my own creditors.

March 6, 1767. PETER HALL.

Advertiſements.

To the Gentlemen Merchants, reſiding in the Province of SOUTH-CAROLINA.

WHEREAS the hon. HECTOR ERASMUS DE BEAUPAIN, Eſq, the late Collector at this port, hath often expreſſed his doubts to me, relative to the propriety of admitting Madera Wines, &c. to an entry for exportation, after the ſame had been landed, as a contrariety to the ſenſe of the late Act of Trade, enacted in the 4th year of his preſent Majeſty's glorious reign; and that, for the better underſtanding thereof, he had repreſented the ſame to the honourable Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms, for their directions therein.

In conſequence whereof, their honours the Commiſſioners have thought fit to return a general and explanatory anſwer, dated the 9th of October laſt, for the future rule and conduct, in this particular (as I conceive) recommended to all the Collectors and other officers of the Revenue in America, to which all due attention and regard is and ought to be paid, purporting, "That if Wines are reported for exportation, they muſt remain on board the ſhip, "under a proper guard; for if they are landed, the duties muſt be paid, and cannot be "drawn back: but in caſe of neceſſary repairs for the veſſel, which may require the un-"ſhipping of the goods, the Wines may be put on ſhore in ware-houſes provided by the pro-"prietor, at his own expence, approved of by his Majeſty's Officers of the Cuſtoms, and "ſecured under the joint locks of the Collector and Comptroller, as well as the proprietor, "'till they are ſhipped for exportation."

THESE ARE THEREFORE to requeſt ſuch gentlemen who have Wines now landed, intending to re-ſhip the ſame for exportation as uſual, that they make their entries at the Cuſtom-Houſe accordingly, that his Majeſty's duties may be ſecured, agreeable to the inſtructions I have received; and that they would alſo immediately diſcharge all arrears for the duties due in the late Collector's time, as well as all the duties owing to me, ſince the 18th July laſt.

Signed at the Cuſtom-Houſe, in Charles-Town, the 28th day of February, 1767.

EDWARDS DAVIS, COLLECTOR.

TO BE SOLD,

AS I intend to depart this province in about a month, I give this public notice, that I am ready to anſwer any ſuit that may be brought againſt me, and to appear and give bail to any ſummons that ſhall be iſſued againſt me, in terms of the act of the general aſſembly of this province, commonly called the attachment act. Meanwhile any perſons having any demands againſt me are deſired to ſend them in for payment.

EAST FLORIDA, ſs.

WHEREAS by the definitive treaty of peace, concluded at Paris the tenth day of February, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-three, between our moſt gracious Sovereign GEORGE the third KING of GREAT BRITAIN, &c. the French King, and the King of Spain, the whole country of FLORIDA, was ceded to his Britannic Majeſty; AND WHEREAS, by the twentieth article of the ſaid definitive treaty of peace, his Britannick Majeſty did, amongſt other things, agree that the Spaniſh inhabitants, or others, who had been ſubjects of the Catholic King, might ſell their eſtates, provided it ſhould be to his Britannic Majeſty's ſubjects. NOW WE, JOHN GORDON, of Charles Town, in the Province of South-Carolina, merchant, and JESSE FISH, of the town of St. Auguſtine, in Eaſt-Florida, do hereby give this public notice to all perſons deſiring, and intending to ſettle in Florida, that we, for ourſelves and others, all ſubjects of his Britannick Majeſty, in the months of October and November, immediately after the ratifying the ſaid treaty of peace, confiding and relying on his Majeſty's Royal ſtipulation therein, and above mentioned, did purchaſe from ſeveral of the ſubjects of the crown of Spain, then reſiding in Florida, for a valuable conſideration, and had in due, lawful and proper form, and by proper deeds and conveyances in law, conveyed to us, various and extenſive tracts of land in the ſaid country, and in that diviſion thereof now called Eaſt Florida, of which lands the ſaid Spaniſh ſubjects before, and at the time of, ratifying the ſaid treaty, were lawfully ſeiſed and poſſeſſed, according to the laws of Spain, as of their own private property, and the conveyances made to us as aforeſaid, were on the firſt day of December, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty three, proved before the then Britiſh Commander in Chief of Eaſt-Florida, certified under his hand and ſeal, and duly authenticated, and a notification and inſtrument declaring us, the ſaid JOHN GORDON and JESSE FISH, to be the real and lawful purchaſers and owners of theſe lands, under the hand of the Spaniſh Governor and Royal officers of Florida, at St. Auguſtine, and the ſeal of their Corteduria, were iſſued, and the ſaid inſtruments and conveyances, with plans of the ſeveral tracts of land thereunto annexed, were produced unto his Excellency Governor GRANT, on or before the ſeventeenth day of November, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty four, and tendered at the Publick Regiſter's office, in St. Auguſtine, there to be recorded, that no perſon might plead ignorance, or be miſled, in their application for, or ſettling on, lands in Eaſt Florida. NEVERTHELESS, William Greening, Eſq; Public Regiſter, did refuſe to receive or record in his ſaid office the ſaid conveyances, by order (as he ſaid) of the ſaid Governour, who has declared, that he would, on application to him in council, grant away theſe lands, in the ſame manner as if no purchaſe of the ſame had ever been made. WE DO THEREFORE, in this public manner, claim our right to the ſaid lands, and enter our caveat and proteſt againſt the Governor of Eaſt Florida, his granting any part or parcel of the ſame: AND, we do hereby in like manner caution and forewarn all perſons whomſoever, from ſitting down, ſettling on, or clearing any of the ſaid lands, on any pretence whatſoever, without our leave and conſent, as ſuch perſon or perſons may depend on our aſſerting our right, founded upon the faith of the ſaid treaty, and on our purſuing to the utmoſt extent of the law, any treſpaſſers on the ſaid lands; at the ſame time, WE DO DECLARE, for ourſelves and the other proprietors, that we will give due encouragement to all perſons that ſhall apply to us to ſettle the ſaid lands, by virtue of, and under our right and title, on the moſt reaſonable terms. And for the better information of all whom theſe may concern, a general plan or ſurvey of our ſaid lands may be ſeen in the hands of either of us, in Charles Town or St. Auguſtine.

JOHN GORDON
JESSE FISH.

St. Auguſtine, Nov. 3, 1766.

SAMUEL PERONNEAU,

Has juſt imported in the Brigantine Prince of Wales, Thomas Maſon, Maſter, from Philadelphia,

SUPER FINE flour in barrels and kegs, milk, water and ſhip bread, a few barrels choice double beer, Weſt India rum in any quantity not leſs than three gallons, alſo choice Coniac brandy.—As he finds it very troubleſome to collect in ſmall accompts for kegs of flour and bread, he is determined not to ſell any without the caſh.

N. B. He once more requeſts all thoſe that are ſtill indebted to him for dry goods upwards of three years paſt, alſo for flour and bread near two years, to diſcharge the ſame, by the firſt day of March next, as he is determined after that day to put what remains unpaid into the hands of an attorney at law, to be ſued without diſtinction.

RAN away from the ſubſcriber, on Santee, the firſt of laſt January, two negroes, a fellow, and wench, named Griper and Grace. Griper is a likely, well made, ſtrong negro, about 5 feet 9 inches high, ſpeaks good Engliſh, and is a very good cooper: He went off in a green jacket and breeches. Grace is a ſtout luſty wench, has remarkable large legs and feet, looking as if they were ſwelled: She went off in a green gown. They were purchaſed of Mr. Marmaduke Bell. It is imagined they may make for Auguſtine, or the back ſettlements. Whoever will take up the ſaid negroes, and deliver them to the warden of the workhouſe in Charles-Town, or to me at Santee, ſhall receive forty pounds reward. And one hundred pounds to whoever will diſcover where they are harboured by a white perſon, and twenty pounds if by a negro, on conviction of the offender or offenders.

February 19, 1767. ROBERT CROFT.

WHEREAS it is neceſſary to ſettle and adjuſt all matters relative to the eſtate of the late John Smith, deceaſed, of Prince George's parish, I therefore deſire all perſons, having any demands on that eſtate, to ſend in the ſame, and ſuch as are indebted to make payment without delay. RAN away the 23d February, from the ſubſcriber in Charles-Town a little, ſhort, black Wench named MARY; well known in Charles Town, Beaufort, Savannah and Auguſta in Georgia. Whoever takes up the ſaid wench, and brings her to me, or the warden of the workhouſe, ſhall be handſomely rewarded, and all expences paid. And whoever harbours or entertains her, may depend on being proſecuted with the utmoſt rigour.

WHITE OUTERBRIDGE.

SHEED & WHITE,

(Having declined the Dry Goods Buſineſs)

ACQUAINT all perſons indebted to them, either by bond, note, or book debts, that unleſs they are diſcharged by the firſt day of March next, they will, without diſtinction, be put into the hands of an attorney at law, to be recovered; it is therefore hoped every perſon concerned may pay a due regard to this timely notice, as it will be a means of preventing that trouble which otherwiſe unavoidably muſt enſue.—Their Compting houſe is kept on the Bay, next door to Meſſrs. Bradford & Chapman's, where conſtant attendance will be given for ſettling and cloſing their affairs.

N. B. They have to ſell, ſuperfine, flour in barrels and half barrels; water, milk and butter bread in kegs; Haynes's beſt double beer in barrels; a few hogſheads of Northward rum, & a parcel of high and low back'd Windſor chairs; all which they have juſt imported in the Philadelphia Packet, John Harriſon, maſter, from Philadelphia, and which, with a few caſks of choice LONDON PORTER, they will ſell, on very moderate terms, for caſh or ſhort credit.
